Introduction

This Suggested Sources document lists citations for books, eBooks, DVDs, videos, and web seminars which can be useful for completing requirements for the Certificate of Excellence in Handweaving (COE-W). This listing makes no claim to be complete or preferable to other choices. Other references, both new and classic, could have been listed which would have served equally well. The references are intended to provide a choice for study, and although a title may be listed under one category, many titles are applicable across multiple sections. Most of these references are available through guild, museum and public libraries, universities, weaving teachers and, in some cases, online. A COE applicant need not refer to all sources listed.

In addition to the titles listed in this document, COE applicants are encouraged to consult websites, webinars, and handweaving magazines, journals, and monographs both past and present for relevant information. These include, but are not limited to, Shuttle, Spindle and Dyepot; Handwoven; Vav; Heddlecraft; Weaver's Craft; The Prairie Wool Companion; The Weaver's Journal; Weaver's; Robin and Russ periodicals Warp and Weft and Drafts and Designs; Handweaver & Craftsman; and the Shuttlecraft Monographs and Bulletins. Indexes to some publications are available on the publisher's website or in libraries. The On-Line Digital Archive of Documents on Weaving and Related Topics <https://www2.cs.arizona.edu/patterns/weaving/index.html> is a source for PDF copies of many older books, magazines, and monographs. Handweaving.net is an online archive of weaving drafts and documents.

All written materials submitted are required to be in the applicant's own words, not copied from any source. Referenced materials and quotations or brief historical references that would suffer in paraphrasing are acceptable but must be cited with author, title, and page number. If material is cited, the source must be listed in the bibliography developed by the applicant. Please refer to the Online Writing Lab (OWL) at Purdue University (https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/purdue_owl.html) for assistance with citation of referenced materials.
